

80. M. Chr. Arab. 94 (Cat. 91)

Contents: 11 folios with the Lives of the Apostles and Other Treatises, 950 A.D., written at Sinai by the monk Thomas. These folios have been demonstrated to have originally formed part of a manuscript made at St. Catherine's monastery, together with M. Add. 130, M. Add. 149, M. Add. 148 and folios at Bryn Mawr College and the University of Leiden.

Illustration: Fol. 4r: the Discourse of St. Epiphanius of Cyprus in praise of the Virgin is headed by a zigzag pattern in black and orange-red with the first three lines of text in orange-red.

Provenance: Mt. Sinai.

Binding: Modern.

Bibliography: Mingana, Catalogue II, 121-22; Van Esbroeck, 'Remembrement d'un manuscrit sinaïtique arabe', 135-47, esp. 139, 145; M. van Esbroeck, "Les actes apocryphes de Thomas en version arabe", Parole de l'Orient 14 (1987), 11-77.